Work-Study Referral Availability

Work-Study Referrals will be available to students awarded with Work-Study through May 30th. After May 30th students will no longer be able to accept their Work-Study awards for the 2019-2020 academic year.

New Referral Submission

The deadline for campus departments to submit new Work-Study Referrals has been set as June 10th. All referrals must be received via finaidwsp@sa.ucsb.edu by close of business (5pm) June 10th. Referrals received after this date will not be processed.

Work-Study Related Salary Cost Transfers

The deadline to submit Work-Study related salary cost transfers is June 13th. Transactions completed after June 13th cannot be guaranteed to split with Work-Study funds.

As a reminder, the bi-weekly pay period ending June 13th is the last pay cycle for which earnings will split on Work-Study. Should you have any questions regarding these deadlines or other issues, please contact the Work-Study unit directly.

Best,
